Allir með emphasises on warm approach and kindness towards children and their parents regardless of age, origin, disability, language, gender, sexuality, gender identity, health, religion, believes, values, or other things that may matter for each child.

Allir með supports inclusive community and protective matters in children's lives.

Allir með is a first level prevention that focuses on bullying, social exclusion, prejudices, any kind of violence or hate speech.

Connections to the Global Goals

Vision statement

Reykjanesbær's community is characterized by positive communication, strong social skills, and tolerance for the diversity of human life.

Children pursue their interests in a safe and stimulating environment where they feel comfortable and can develop their talents and flourish in leisure, sports, culture, and youth activities.

The residents of Reykjanesbær feel good, they have equal opportunities for social participation and employment, and they feel that they belong to the community.

Connections to the Global Goals of Children's Rights

Goal

That all leaders in organized children's activities, teachers, coaches, parents, and children's companions care for others and give children the opportunity to have an impact and be part of the community.

That all children participate in organized sports and youth activities and belong to the group in which they participate.

To support and empower everyone who works with children through education and training and to give them the tools to work towards a strong whole of each group.

That information about the availability of what is available to children in Reykjanesbær is accessible to children and their families.
