Karl Berg (1907 - 1945)

All Poles, Yugoslavians, Lithuanians and others met with Karl Berg near Kamp Amersfoort, to be the 38-year-old Karl Berg was their resistance commander. With limited resources, he was a brilliant leader. He often used his own money to buy food, medicine and other necessities for the prisoners. Karl was given the nickname "the man who gave life to the prisoners".

After the arrest of Loes van Overseem, Karl Berg was arrested in 1943. He was sentenced to death and was shot in 1945.

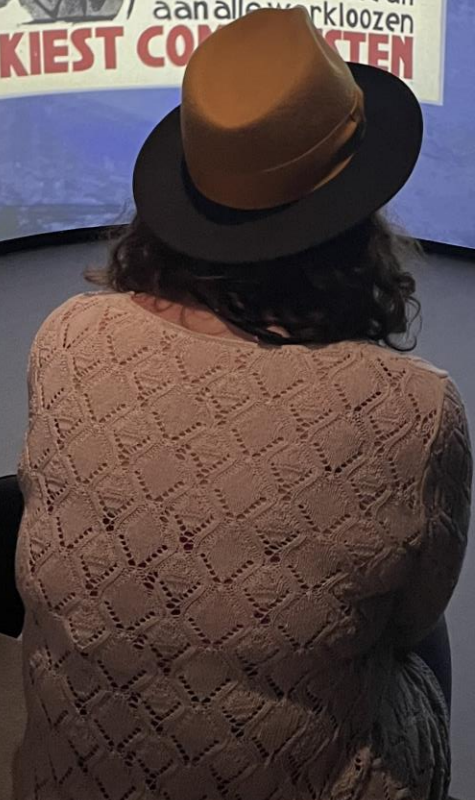

Met de bevrijding in maart 1945 draagt Karl op 18 April 1945 het kamp over aan Loes. Na de bevrijding wordt Karl gearresteerd. Hij krijgt de doodstraf en wordt in 1945 doodgeschoten.

When Red Cross volunteer Loes van Overseem arrived at Camp Amersfoort with food parcels in tow, the 38-year-old Karl Berg had been commander of the camp for only a few months. Together with Joseph Kofala, he instituted a reign of terror. Many detainees were members of the resistance, and there were also Jews, hostages and Jehovah's Witnesses in the camp.

Four times he sent Loes away in his car. Finally, he gave her a job. In return, she contacted many high-ranking Nazi officials - and in the autumn of 1943, Loes received permission to deliver her food parcels to the detainees.

With liberation imminent, Karl turned the camp over to Loes on 18 April 1945. Karl was arrested after the occupation ended. He was sentenced to death and was shot in 1945.

Hollendingar skynja verðmætin í safnastarfinu.

Öll söfn gera ráð fyrir börnum, fjölskyldum og öðrum hópum.

Rekstrarform safnanna er sambærilegt og á Íslandi.

Stuðningur eigenda er augljós.

Flest söfn hafa gengist undir endurnýjun á síðustu árum til að svara kröfum nútímans.

Enginn kvartar undan manneklu eða peningaleysi.

Verkefni af allt annarri stærðargráðu en við þekkjum.

Fjöldi sérfræðinga í hverju safni sem sinnir afmörkuðum verkefnum.

Fulltrúar safnanna í Reykjanesbæ vilja undirstrika að líkt og í Hollandi býr mikið virði í safnastarfinu í Reykjanesbæ. Söfnin eiga gríðarlega mikið inni sem er mikilvægt að geta skilað betur til almennings.

Til þess þurfa söfnin skilyrðislausan stuðning eigenda sinna og við hvetjum bæjaryfirvöld til að sameinast um það verkefni.
